Numb. 550.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt dvices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM JUNE 21. TO JUNE 28. 1739.

LONDON, April 6. 1739.

WE hear from Rome, that about a Month ſince, by Order of the Inquiſition, was burnt there, in the open Place before the Church of Santa Maria ſupra Minerva, with great Solemnity, a Piece wrote by Chevalier Ramſay (Author of the Lives of Cyrus, Fenelon Arſhbiſhop of Cambray, &c.) in Defence of Free-Maſonry, (of which he was a Member) entituled, Relation Apologique et Hiſtorique de la Secrete des Francs-Maſons, par J. G. D. M. F. M. A Dublin chez Patrice Odonoko, 1738. This was publiſhed at Paris in Anſwer to a pretended Catechiſm printed there by Order of the Lieutenant de Police, much of the ſame Nature and Authority, of that printed in Engliſh by one Pritchard, and paraded into the World by the ſame ſolemn Oaths; though the one is as little credited as the other.

April 14. They write from Belgrade, that upon Advice that a Party of Turks had advanced towards Sabatſch, Lieutenant-General Baron de Golden, Commandant of that Town, detach'd Major Staniſſa, with 200 Horſe to reconnoitre the Enemy; that the Major being arriv'd near Crawjevax, heard that about 50 Turks lay in a Valley within a ſmall Diſtance of that Place; upon which he immediately ſent a Corporal with nine Huſſars to attack them, which they did with ſo much Bravery, that having kill'd their Captain and a few Soldiers, the reſt of the Infidels took to their Heels, and left the Huſſars Maſters of the Booty they had taken but a few Hours before.

NORFOLK-HOUSE, April 13.

There having been Errors in the Account given of the Chriſtening of the new-born Prince; this is to acquaint the Publick, that the Right Names of the young Prince are,

EDWARD AUGUSTUS.

The Sponſors were { The King of Pruſſia. / The Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbutle. / The Dutcheſs of Saxe-Weiſſenfels.

The Proxies { His Grace the Duke of Queensberry. / Right Hon. the Marquis of Carnarvon. / Right Hon. Lady Charlote Edwin.

The Ceremony was perform'd laſt Wedneſday Night, about Nine o'Clock, by the Biſhop of Oxford.

YORK, April 16.

Laſt Saturday Richard Turpin and John Stead were executed at Tyburn for Horſe-ſtealing. The latter died very penitent, but the former behav'd with the greateſt Aſſurance to the very laſt. It was remarkable that as he mounted the Ladder his right Leg trembled, on which he ſtamped it down with an Air; with undaunted Courage look'd round about him, and after ſpeaking a few Words to the Topſman, he threw himſelf off the Ladder, and expired in about five Minutes.

LONDON, April 17. On Sunday laſt died at the Poſt-Office in Lombard-Street, Edward Carteret, Eſq; one of the Poſt-Maſters General. He was third Son of Sir Philip Carteret, and younger Brother to Sir George Carteret, Bart. created Lord Carteret, and Uncle to the preſent Lord Carteret.

There is a Report that a French Squadron will ſoon appear in the Baltick, to ſupport the Deſigns of Sweden.

April 18. We hear, that all the Guard Ships are ordered to rendezvous immediately in the Downs.

The Victualling-Office has provided nine Months Proviſions for Twelve Men of War, beſides what are ready at Portſmouth, Plymouth, &c.

April 25. The Diſcourſe ſtill continues that a Fleet of Britiſh Men of War will ſhortly be ſent to the Baltick, by way of Obſervation.

April 28. On Thurſday laſt an Expreſs arrived here from Mr. Keene, his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Spain, with Diſpatches (as we are inform'd) of the utmoſt Importance, and ſuch as have vaſtly rais'd the Attention of the Publick.

There is now in the River a Ship, taken into the Government's Service, that hath on board 70 Pieces of Cannon, a large Quantity of Ball, and Arms for 3000 Men, which are deſign'd for the Province of Carolina; which Ship is to be convoy'd by one of the Men of War now lying in the Downs.

May 1. According to our Letters from Madrid, Mr. Keene and Mr. Caſtres received on the 11th of laſt Month, N. S. their full Powers and Inſtructions for opening the Conferences with the Spaniſh Plenipotentiaries.

They write from Leghorn, that the Number of Veſſels at Antibes, for tranſporting the French Troops at Corſica, amounts to 140.

From Deal we hear, that a French Man of War, ſuppos'd to be one of thoſe deſign'd for the Baltick, was at Anchor at the Back of the Goodwin Sands.

Yeſterday the Stocks fell conſiderably, on account, as 'tis ſaid, of ſome Advices lately receiv'd from Spain.

VIENNA, April 28. They write from Temeſwar, that the Infidels are getting ready a great Train of Artillery in the Neighbourhood of Meadia; and that they give out they intend to lay Siege to Temeſwar in a very little Time. As a Detachment of 16 or 17,000 Imperial Troops are march'd that Way, it is hop'd that the Deſign of the Turks will be prevented.

It is ſaid, that the Court has receiv'd Letters from the Archipelago, with Advice that Sari Bey Oglow, Chief of the Rebels in Natolia, has made himſelf Maſter of Smyrna.

LONDON, April 19. We hear there is Advice in Town from Paris, that the Corſicans had cut in Pieces three French Battalions, and obliged a fourth to ſurrender Priſoners, on Condition of being tranſported to France.

April 24. Sir Robert Walpole continues greatly indiſpoſed at his Houſe in Downing-ſtreet, Weſtminſter; two Perſons ſit up with him every Night.

Letters from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, confirm, that the Turks are making great Preparations for the Siege of Aſoph; and add, that the Grand Signior appears reſolved to call home Count Boneval from his Exile.

We hear, that his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales voted in the Houſe of Lords on Tueſday laſt, againſt addreſſing his Majeſty upon the Convention.
